After over half a century a roll of the original microfilm containing correspondence from May 1944 addressed to a New York forces has been discovered, still in its original 'Kodak' canister. We will probably never know how this film escaped the rigorous security checks and if, indeed, the letters were ever delivered.

Permission was authorised by the British Post Office for an edition of only 10,000 to be used on behalf of 'War on Want'. Although not postally valid but printed in full colour, perforated and on PVA Gummed Paper this attractive item is the subject of controversy. The Post Office is embarrassed and would prefer the Souvenir Sheet to be withdrawn, as it gives the impression that it was officially released.
